MAY WE HONOR mothers

A Note from Pastor Ed & Stephanie Newton

To the women of CBC and guests,

First, thank you so much for making this house of worship a place to attend on such a wonderful occasion. Proverbs 31 states, "Give her the praise that's due to your name," and this is exactly what we desire to do for you today.

Stephanie and I want to take a moment to honor each and every one of you. You are truly a woman of worth and value. So, whether you're a mother, grandmother, aunt, or a woman of influence in someone else's life, your presence and impact are invaluable in this world.

For some of you, this day may bring mixed emotions; it may be a reminder of loss and longing. Whatever you're feeling, know that you are not alone. Know that we see you and pray for you that you will feel God's comforting presence surrounding you, giving you peace and strength for hope to rise.

May each of you be encouraged to walk boldly in God's promises for your life, knowing that you are fearfully and wonderfully made. Never settle for less than God's best in your life, and never lose sight that you are a daughter of the KING.

Happy Mother's Day, dear sisters. Pastor Ed & Stephanie Newton

In honor of Mother's Day and the women of CBC, our church partnered with Sleep in Heavenly Peace and hosted the Bed Build for Children in the San Antonio area. In addition to the $40,000 donation from CBC to build the beds, hundreds of CBC volunteers donated their time to build the beds and deliver them to 400 families across San Antonio. Thank you, CBC Ladies!

CBC and its partnership with the South Texas Alliance for Orphans have set a goal of adding 200 new foster families to help meet the needs of over 3,000 children in the San Antonio area. CBC's commitment to fostering extends beyond recruitment to comprehensive support for foster families; we actively engage in various initiatives to provide practical assistance and emotional support to foster children and their caregivers. CBC's children's department is licensed to care for foster children, providing a safe and nurturing environment for them to grow and thrive.

Those interested in learning more about foster care or other ways to help are encouraged to attend an Information Meeting this Wednesday, May 15th, at 6:30 pm, or visit one of CBC's leaders at the Global Wall Map in the Lobby. Please register at communitybible.com
