GET TO KNOW SOME OF CBC'S PASTORS

Pastor Maurice Cox (Mo) fell in love with Jesus at the age of 18 at a local church where he grew up. Shortly after, he received the call to preach God's word and stepped into vocational ministry. He is the Husband to Aisha of nine years and the father to their 1-year-old baby boy, O'Shea. Maurice is our Young Adults Pastor and recently graduated from North Park Theological Seminary with a Master's in Christian Formation. A couple of fun facts about Maurice are that he loves to roller skate, he is super extroverted, he believes pineapples should never go on pizza, and that Kobe Bryant is the GOAT.

Pastor Nick Henderson, was raised in Pensacola, Florida, and found his faith in Jesus. After completing college at Liberty University in Virginia, he began his career as a youth pastor in Houston, Texas. He also pursued seminary education in Houston and eventually followed God's lead to CBC, where he now has the privilege to pastor the College+ ministry. Pastor Nick and his wife, Danielle, are parents to their six-month-old son, Henry. Together, they embrace a life of unwavering obedience to the Lord, cherishing every moment of their shared adventure.

Pastor Marquise Cox, aka "Q," is the husband of Krystal and father of Denver and Dallas. Together, they celebrate ten years of marriage. In addition to being a family man, he is also the CBC Northside Campus Pastor. This fall, Pastor Q and an army of CBC'rs are set to launch the North campus. In his spare time, this Southern California native likes to roller skate and binge-watch "Martin" reruns.

Pastor Casey Withers serves as the lead student pastor and has been on staff at CBC for six years. He is married to Hannah, and they have two children, Keller and Karis. Pastor Casey has a Masters of Divinity from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. This Southern California native loves basketball and is the biggest Lakers fan on staff.
